

Viewing security information for your organization or enterprise

View, sort, and filter security alerts and coverage information from across your organization or enterprise, and enable security features for their repositories.

All enterprises and their organizations have a security overview. If you use GitHub Advanced Security features, which are free for public repositories, you will see additional information. For more information, see "About GitHub Advanced Security."

About security overview

Assessing adoption of code security features

Assessing your code security risk

Filtering alerts in security overview

Enabling security features for multiple repositories

Exporting data from the risk and coverage pages

Viewing metrics for secret scanning push protection in your organization

Legal

© 2023 GitHub, Inc. Terms Privacy Status Pricing Expert services Blog