

Attributing sponsorships to your organization

You can attribute the sponsorships paid by one of your organizations to another organization.

Who can use this feature

People who are organization owners of both organizations can attribute one organization's sponsorships to another organization.

- 1 Navigate to the organization whose sponsorships you want to attribute to another organization.
- 2 Under your organization name, click  Sponsoring.

- 3 In the sidebar, click  Settings.

- 4 In the "Link sponsorships to another account" section, select the dropdown menu, then click the organization you want your organization's sponsorships to be attributed to.

5 Click Link account.
