

Managing your repository's settings and features

You can customize your repository, enable or disable optional features for your repository, and manage your repository's settings.

Customizing your repository

About READMEs

Licensing a repository

Customizing your repository's social media preview

Classifying your repository with topics

About code owners

About repository languages

About CITATION files

Enabling features for your repository

Disabling issues

Disabling projects in a repository

Managing GitHub Actions settings for a repository

Enabling or disabling GitHub Discussions for a repository

Managing security and analysis settings for your repository

Managing repository settings

Setting repository visibility

Managing teams and people with access to your repository

Managing the forking policy for your repository

Managing the commit signoff policy for your repository

Managing the push policy for your repository

Enabling anonymous Git read access for a repository

About email notifications for pushes to your repository

Configuring autolinks to reference external resources

Configuring tag protection rules

Legal