

Viewing your GitHub Copilot usage

In this article

About your GitHub Copilot usage

Viewing your organization's use of GitHub Copilot for Business

You can view how many users have access to GitHub Copilot across your organization.

Who can use this feature

Organization admins can view usage for GitHub Copilot in their organization.

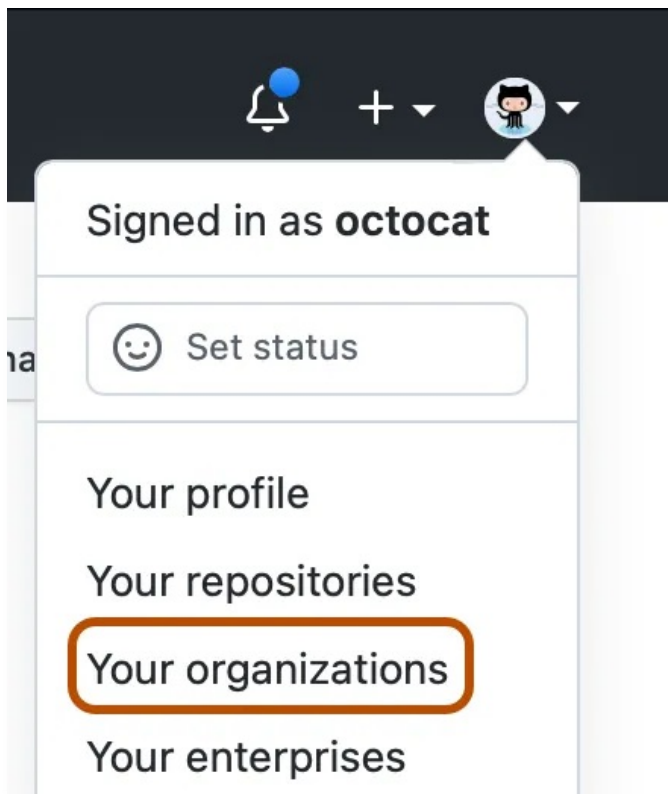

GitHub Copilot can be managed through personal accounts with GitHub Copilot for Individuals or through organization accounts with GitHub Copilot for Business.

About your GitHub Copilot usage

You can view usage information for GitHub Copilot for Business in your organization, broken down by seat assignment status. At the organization level, this information includes the total number of seats, seats carried over from the previous billing cycle, new seats added during the current cycle, and seats to be removed at the end of the current cycle.

Viewing your organization's use of GitHub Copilot for Business

- 1 In the top right corner of GitHub.com, click your profile photo, then click  Your organizations.

- 2 Next to the organization, click Settings.
- 3 In the "Access" section of the sidebar, click  Billing and plans.
- 4 Under "Copilot", view the breakdown of your GitHub Copilot usage and upcoming changes in your organization.

 GitHub Copilot The AI powered pair programmer for your organization · See billing documentation
▼	Total Seats	61 seats
	Seats carried over from previous billing cycle	50 seats
	New seats added during this billing cycle	11 seats
	Seats to be removed during next billing cycle	0 seats

The figure for Total Seats shows how many seats are currently assigned for GitHub Copilot.

Legal

© 2023 GitHub, Inc. Terms Privacy Status Pricing Expert services Blog