Keeping your organization secure

You can harden security for your organization by managing security settings, requiring two-factor authentication (2FA), and reviewing the activity and integrations within your organization.

Managing two-factor authentication for your organization

Viewing whether users in your organization have 2FA enabled

Preparing to require two-factor authentication in your organization

Requiring two-factor authentication in your organization

Managing bots and service accounts with two-factor authentication

Managing security settings for your organization

Managing security and analysis settings for your organization

Restricting email notifications for your organization

Reviewing the audit log for your organization

Displaying IP addresses in the audit log for your organization

Audit log events for your organization

Legal

Terms   Privacy   Status   Pricing   Expert services   Blog