Moderating comments and conversations

Moderating conversations creates a welcoming community for all contributors to your project by promoting healthy collaboration and de-escalating conflict. You can apply your community's code of conduct to discussions by viewing reported content, editing and deleting comments, and locking conversations.

Managing disruptive comments

Locking conversations

Tracking changes in a comment

Legal

Terms   Privacy   Status   Pricing   Expert services   Blog