The REST API is now versioned. For more information, see "About API versioning."

Security advisories

Use the REST API to view and manage security advisories.

Global security advisories

List global security advisories

Get a global security advisory

Repository security advisories

List repository security advisories for an organization

List repository security advisories

Create a repository security advisory

Privately report a security vulnerability

Get a repository security advisory

Update a repository security advisory

Request a CVE for a repository security advisory