The REST API is now versioned. For more information, see "About API versioning."

Migrations

Use the REST API to migrate the repositories and users of your organization from GitHub.com to GitHub Enterprise Server.

Organization migrations

List organization migrations

Start an organization migration

Get an organization migration status

Download an organization migration archive

Delete an organization migration archive

Unlock an organization repository

List repositories in an organization migration

User migrations

List user migrations

Start a user migration

Download a user migration archive

List repositories for a user migration