Managing your GitHub Copilot subscription for your personal account

Set up your GitHub Copilot for Individuals trial for your personal account and manage your subscription.

> GitHub Copilot can be managed through personal accounts with GitHub Copilot for Individuals or through organization or enterprise accounts with GitHub Copilot for Business.

About managing your GitHub Copilot for Individuals subscription 🔗

This article applies to setting up and managing a GitHub Copilot subscription for your personal account. If you are an organization or enterprise administrator and want to set up GitHub Copilot for your organization or enterprise, see "Managing your GitHub Copilot subscription for your organization or enterprise."

If you have access to GitHub Copilot through a GitHub Copilot for Business seat, you will not be able to make administrative changes.

For more information about billing in general, like adding a payment method or viewing your payment history, see "Managing your GitHub billing settings."

Configuring GitHub Copilot settings on GitHub.com 🔗

Before you can start using GitHub Copilot, you will need to set up a subscription. For more information, see "Managing your GitHub Copilot subscription for your personal account" or "Managing your GitHub Copilot subscription for your organization or enterprise."
Once you have an active GitHub Copilot subscription, you can adjust GitHub Copilot settings for your personal account on GitHub in the GitHub Copilot settings. The settings apply anywhere that you use GitHub Copilot. You can configure the suggestions that GitHub Copilot offers and how GitHub uses your telemetry data.

Enabling or disabling duplication detection 🔗

GitHub Copilot includes a filter which detects code suggestions matching public code on GitHub. You can choose to enable or disable the filter. When the filter is enabled, GitHub Copilot checks code suggestions with their surrounding code of about 150 characters against public code on GitHub. If there is a match or near match, the suggestion will not be shown to you.

1. In the upper-right corner of any page, click your profile photo, then click Settings.

2. In the left sidebar, click ⊛ GitHub Copilot.

3. Under Suggestions matching public code, select the dropdown menu, then click Allow to allow suggestions matching public code, or Block to block suggestions matching public code.

4. To confirm your new settings, click Save.

Setting up a GitHub Copilot trial or subscription for your personal account 🔗

Before you can start using GitHub Copilot for Individuals, you will need to set up a free trial or subscription.

2021 and June 2022, you are not eligible for a 30-day trial.

1. In the upper-right corner of any page, click your profile photo, then click Settings.

2. In the "Code, planning, and automation" section of the sidebar, click 🐙 GitHub Copilot.

3. On the GitHub Copilot settings page, click Enable GitHub Copilot.

4. Choose whether you want to pay monthly or yearly, and click Continue to get access to Copilot.

   - If your personal account meets the criteria for a free GitHub Copilot subscription instead of a trial or paid subscription, you will automatically be taken to step 6.

5. Follow the steps to confirm your payment details, then click Submit.

6. Select your preferences, then click Save and get started.

   You can change these preferences at a later time by returning to your GitHub Copilot settings. For more information, see "Configuring GitHub Copilot in your environment."
