Discounted plans for GitHub accounts

In this article

GitHub Enterprise Cloud provides discounts to students, educators, educational institutions, nonprofits, and libraries.

> Tip: Discounts for an account's plan do not apply to other subscriptions or usage-based billing.

Discounts for personal accounts

In addition to the unlimited public and private repositories for students and faculty with GitHub Free, verified students can apply for the GitHub Student Developer Pack to receive additional benefits from GitHub partners. For more information, see "Apply to GitHub Global Campus as a student."

Discounts for schools and universities

Verified academic faculty can apply for GitHub Team for teaching or academic research. For more information, see "GitHub Global Campus for teachers." You can also request educational materials goodies for your students. For more information, visit GitHub Education.

Discounts for nonprofits and libraries

GitHub Enterprise Cloud provides free GitHub Team for organizations with unlimited private repositories, unlimited collaborators, and a full feature set to qualifying 501(c)3 (or equivalent) organizations and libraries. You can request a discount for your organization on our nonprofit page.

If your organization already has a paid plan, your organization's last transaction will be refunded once your nonprofit discount has been applied.
