Following organizations

In this article

You can follow organizations on GitHub Enterprise Cloud to receive notifications about their activity.

> Note: The ability to follow organizations is currently in public beta and subject to change.

About followers on GitHub Enterprise Cloud 🔗

When you follow organizations on GitHub Enterprise Cloud, you'll see their public activity on your personal dashboard. This activity includes new discussions, sponsorships, and repositories. For more information, see "About your personal dashboard."

You can unfollow an organization if you do not wish to see their public activity on GitHub Enterprise Cloud.

Following an organization on GitHub Enterprise Cloud 🔗

① Go to the organization page you want to follow.

② In the top-right corner, click Follow.

Unfollowing an organization on GitHub Enterprise Cloud 🔗

① Go to the organization page you want to unfollow.

② In the top-right corner, click Unfollow.

Viewing people and organizations a user follows on GitHub Enterprise Cloud 🔗

① Navigate to the user's profile page.

2 Under the user's profile picture, click following.

Further reading 🔗

- "Following people"