About GitHub Octernships

In this article

You can apply to paid professional experiences through your GitHub account and GitHub Global Campus.

> Note: GitHub Octernships are currently available for students in Colombia, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Mexico, Nigeria, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, and Vietnam.

About GitHub Octernships 🔗

If you're over 18 years old, have been accepted to GitHub Global Campus, and have an active GitHub account, you can use the GitHub Octernships program to seek out and apply for paid remote internships from organizations partnering with GitHub.

You can use the GitHub Octernships website to browse the current projects and apply to up to four internships at a time.

Before you can apply, you must have been accepted to GitHub Global Campus. For more information, see "Apply to GitHub Global Campus as a student."

To learn more about the GitHub Octernships application process for students, see "Applying for GitHub Octernships."

Applying to become a GitHub Octernships partner organization 🔗

If you're interested in partnering with GitHub and offering internships through GitHub Octernships, you can find out more in the handbook at github.com/education/Octernships.
